THE CAMPUS

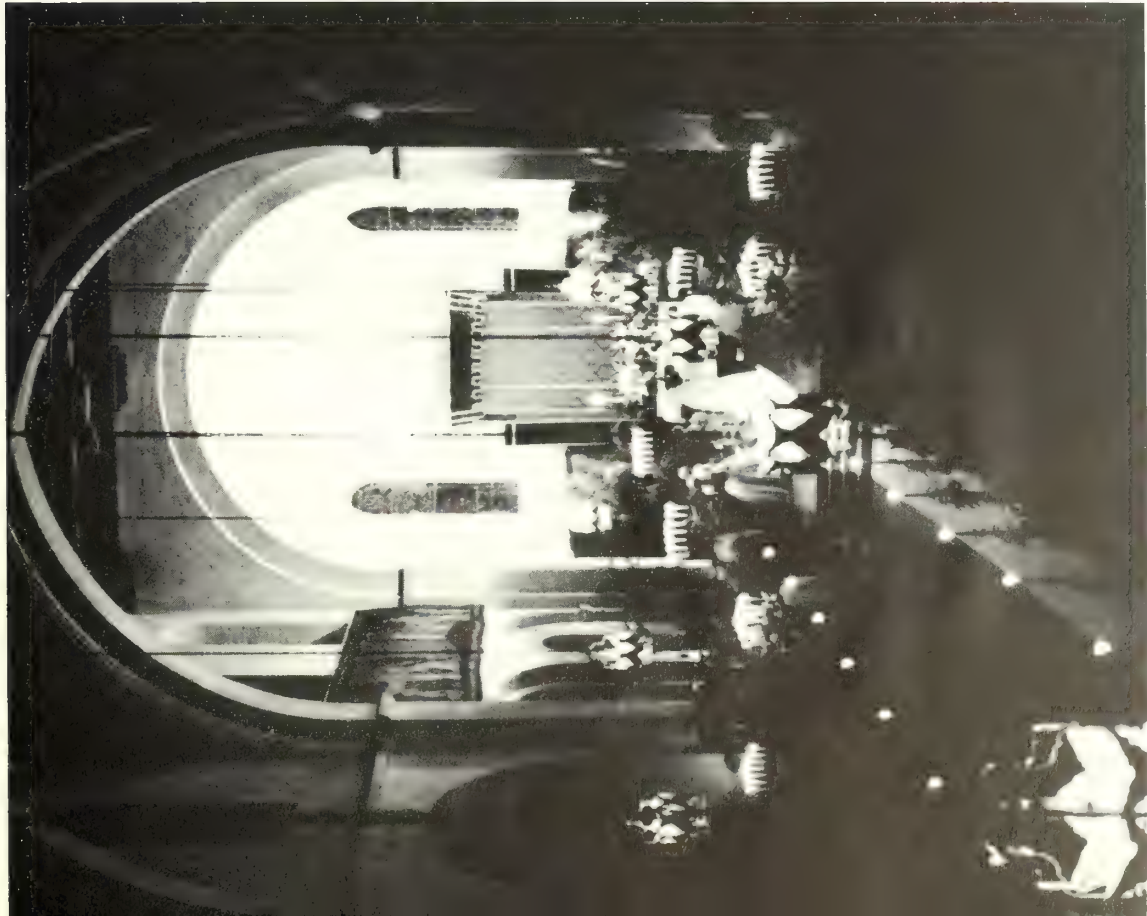

It's usually a great day for sailing or any other aquatic sport on our scenic waterfront.

The last word in construction, our new library houses a rich store of knowledge.

"Two bits, four bits, six bits, a dollar, all for Rollins stand up and holler," is a standard cheer at rousing athletic contests.

Many college pinnings result in Knowles Chapel weddings.

THE TRADITION

Originated by the late Dr. Holt, as a campus fixture, Rollins Walk of Fame continues to attract attention.

The Historical Congregational Bell is a recent addition to the campus.

From "A" period to "F", Dan's bugle clocks class time.

The "Swamp Stompers" entertain at one of the fraternity open houses which spark the campus social life.

Dedication

MRS.
FRANCES
WARREN

Throughout her life the modest and unassuming Mrs. Frances Knowles Warren has given freely of her self in an effort to realize the dream of her father, Francis Knowles, founder and trustee of Rollins College.

With pride in its past and with confidence in its future, Mrs. Warren has given to Rollins the very buildings around which the life of the college is centered.

The beautiful and inspiring Knowles Memorial Chapel, the Student Center, the Administration Building and the restoration of Knowles Science Hall were all the gifts of this fine lady.

Thus for her willingness to meet Rollins' needs, for her outstanding part in the creation of Rollins' beauty, for her generosity, for her devotion to the ideals of this college, we dedicate this, the 1953 Tomokan, to our beloved,

Mrs. Frances Knowles Warren.

OFFICERS

be appointed to such a post, President Hugh McKean has proven himself to be an able leader and educator.

President McKean has contributed to the cultural advancement and welfare not only of the college but also of the community. He is well known for his abilities as an artist and continues to nab blue ribbons at art shows throughout the United States.

Dr. A. J. Hanna, first vice-president of can history courses as President McKean for his paintings. Dr. Hanna has been a member of the faculty for 35 years, having graduated from the college in 1917.

Not only is the Doctor in the panama suit well known at Rollins, he is also recognized by "Who's Who in America," "Who's Who in American Education" and "The Directory of American Scholars."

Treasurer John M. Tiedtke also serves as

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Fixing the rate of tuition, enforcing the rules of management, prescribing the course of studies that different departments pursue, enforcing the conduct of all members of the college, purchasing equipment, and in general, operating and managing Rollins College are among the numerous duties of the Board of Trustees.

This group, which consists of not less than 19 nor more than 24 members, holds its annual meetings at the college in February, the weekend nearest to Washington's Birthday and the Tuesday preceding Commencement. All trustees hold office for three years and until their successors are elected and installed. Three of the members must be Rollins graduates.

Students who worry about tuition hikes, disagree about curriculum, would prefer new college equipment, should contact Chairman Winthrop Bancroft. Possibly he will see fit to bring it up before the Board next fall!

DEANS

Chewing his glasses, Dean Walker considers a not too serious problem; hence, the smile.

We have a new Dean this year in the person of Dr. Edwin R. Walker. Already the Dean has established a reputation for fairness and thoroughness. Before he came to Rollins, Dr. Walker acquired an outstanding record as an educator and an administrator at Florida State University as Dean of the College of Arts and Science. Aside from being our Chapel minister, Dean Theodore Darrah is just as active in other campus functions. He has a column each week in the Sandspur. He also instructs stimulating courses in Religion that, as indicated by their popularity, bring the scriptures to life and applicable to campus life.

Marion Van Buren Cleveland, though Dean of Women, says she'd rather be Dean of Men. Dean Cleveland's activities go further than her title implies; she acts as advisor to this board or member of that committee, lending to each a bit of her personal charm and down-to-earth good sense. Joseph Justice has done a fine job, both as Acting Dean of Men and as coach of basketball and baseball. The varied activities of dean and coach are numerous, keeping him constantly on the go. We cannot resist the obvious pun, anyone who has to see the Dean receives a liberal dose of Justice.

Faculty

The faculty are in a sense the "mothers" and "fathers" of the Rollins family. Through use of the Conference Plan the faculty are much more accessible, more a part of the student body, not just educators as is the case in larger schools where the Conference Plan is not practical.

The faculty holds another of its famous meetings in Morse Art Gallery to make fiendish plans for unsuspecting students.

MARIAN WILCOX
Assistant Dean of Women

President's assistant Smith confers with the President's able secretaries.

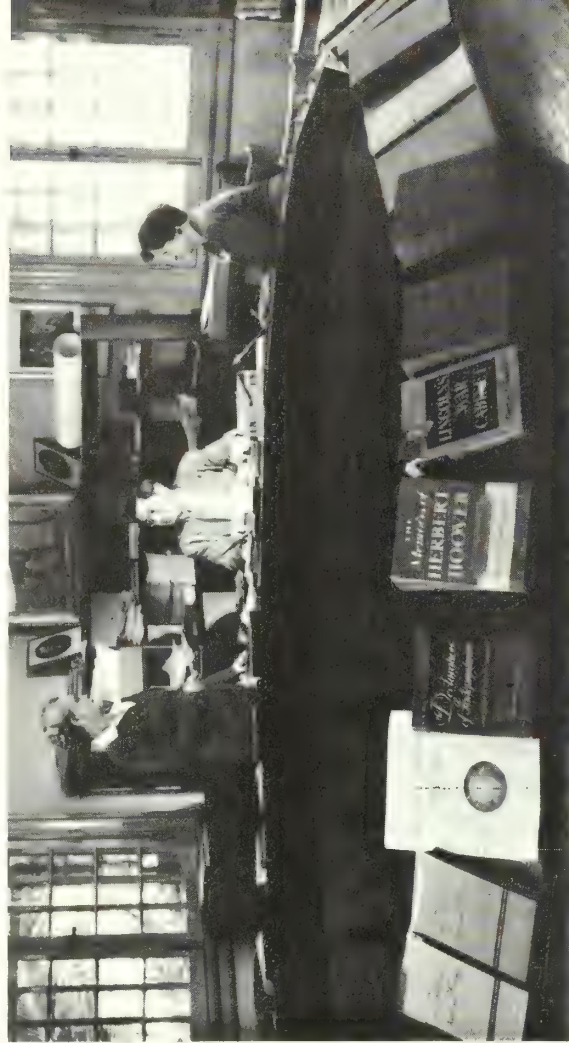

Treasurer John Tiedtke outlines budget to his assistants at a financial conference.

Staff

Is this all the Administrative Staff does—attend board meetings, engage in bull sessions, or idly gaze out the window? We don't believe it. Rather we know that they handle the workings and activities of the college efficiently and successfully. Theirs are difficult jobs, and not in the least bit enviable.

Diamond Jubilee Commission Chairman A. J. Hanna reviews early plans for the event.

Miss Fairchild, Miss Eastwood, Miss Adolfs and their assistants confer.

Calling for Infirmary excuses, granting late permissions, checking rooms for neatness, reprimanding obstreperous students, worrying about their "children," . . . all of these are part of a housemother's busy day. The welfare of a dormitory and its inhabitants places a great deal of responsibility on the shoulders of these women for whom the students share a common bond in their love for their second "Mama's."

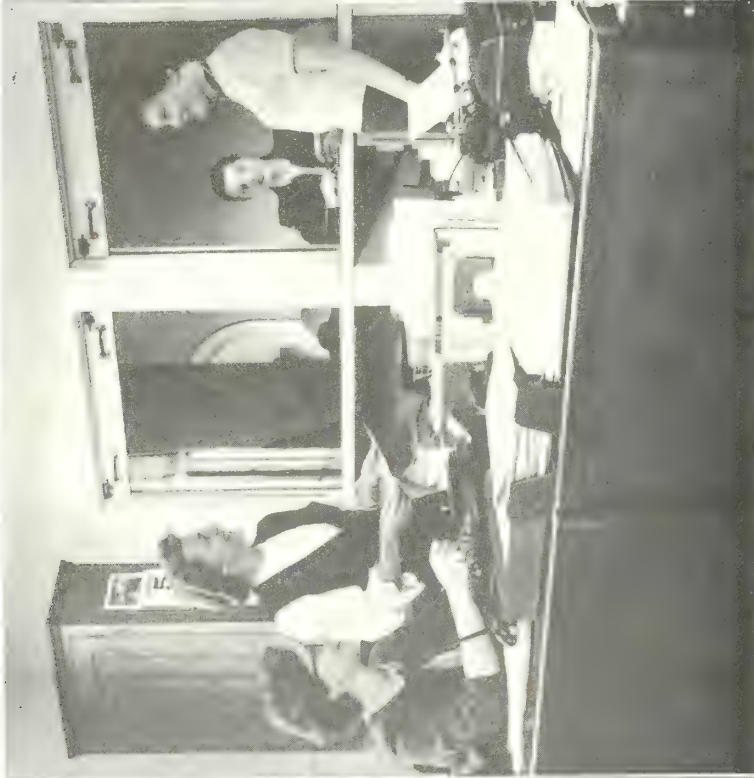

Should a problem about the college arise which seems unsolvable, it's a cinch that the first people who'll be turned to for solutions are Miss Eastwood, Miss Fairchild and Miss Adolfs! These three, the Deans' Assistants, keep close tab on all the campus goings-on and never hesitate to lend a helping hand.

First Row: Mmes. Pancoast, Brown, Campbell, Reid; Second Row: Fitzgerald, Payne, Marshall, Leland, Burke. These are our indispensable house mothers to whom we owe a big vote of thanks.

Milly Merrill

These busy Pink Palace staffs deluge us with blue, white or yellow notices each morning. They are unrelenting in their investigations of our pasts, purses and academic performances.

Chloe Lyle, Leona Lyle

The admissions office, under Jack Rich's able leadership, is in charge of selecting and personally interviewing Rollins applicants. Should you want to check on your grades or where your classes meet, just see Miss Koehler and her staff who will give you the "bad news" with an ever ready—if not an encouraging smile. Their office is the source of many frantic pleas and repentances, yet, throughout it all their policy is unrelent-ingly firm though not unsympathetic.

"Please report to Miss Lyle at the cashier's office at your earliest convenience." This notice means that you owe Rollins money, and Miss Lyle makes no mistakes.

Jim Jackson, Bill Shelton, Katherine McClelland and Lyman Huntington plan a new Public Relations attack.

Phys-Ed instructors Janet Patton, Sara Jane Dorsey, Clyde Kelly, Jack McDowell and Gordon Apgar discuss the merits of the department's equipment.

Jackie Alice Hansen, Helena Graham, Gladys Henderson. Seated: Jane Swanson, Lucy Lacey

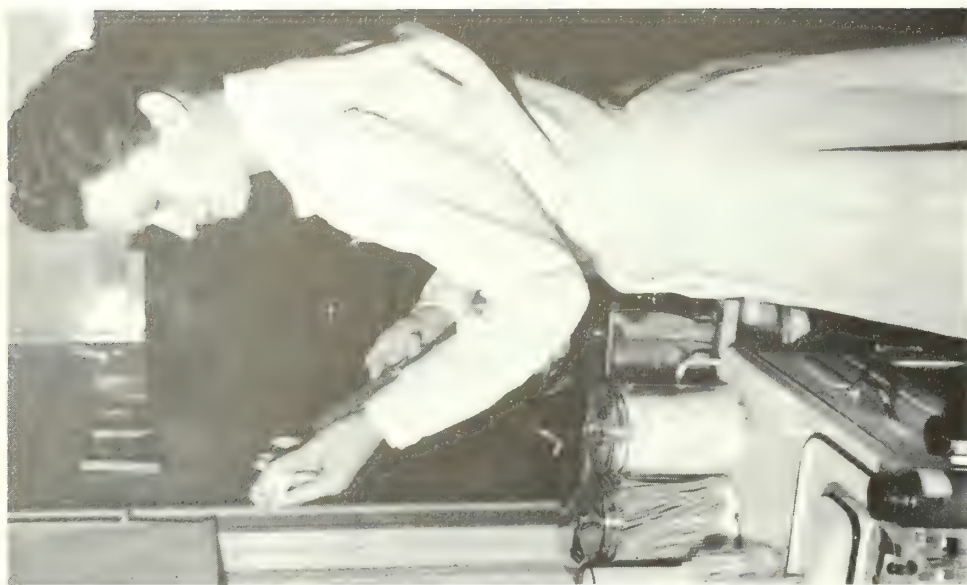

The Library Staff takes an unusual and brief moment of respite.

Miss McKay, Alumni secretary and her assistant, Mrs. Kent are hard at work as usual.

Ice cream, coffee, an order of toast . . . coming up as the center staff busies itself with filling empty stomachs.

Nicky prepares a vicious looking needle in the Infirmary.

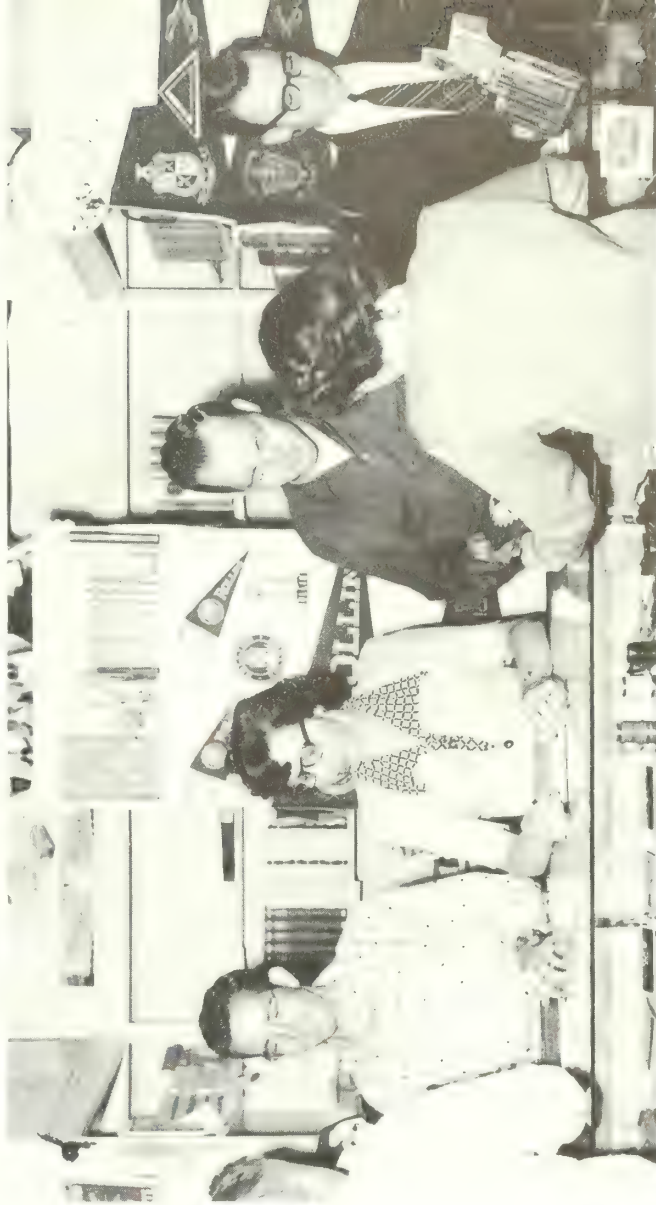

The Cartwrights', father and son, supervise upkeep of college grounds.

"Fish or meatloaf? Cabbage or brussel sprouts?" is the question facing freshman. It's a difficult choice.

Mrs. Yarborough and assistants sell everything from beer mugs to tooth paste, also books.

Looking confidently toward the future, Kay McDonnell, Sec., Tom Nelson, Pres., and Larry Bentley, Vice-President, are Senior officers.

Graduates

Rollins College will grant to its graduates this June 103 degrees. This would indicate that these students have demonstrated a satisfactory level of achievement, both qualitatively and quantitatively while acquiring the fundamentals of a liberal arts education. From their Freshman Composition Course through Upper Division papers to the final requirements in their Major field, the Seniors have worked diligently toward the Big Day: June 6th, 1953.

Student Association

Executive and legislative powers of Rollins' Student Association are vested in the Student Council which is composed of one representative from each social fraternity on campus, four independent representatives, the dean of men and the dean of women.

This year's Council was headed by John DeGrove with Bob Leader serving as Vice-President, Barbara Mack as Secretary and Tom Nelson as Comptroller of the Student Association.

Various committees within the Council were especially active during 1952-53. The Student-Faculty Disciplinary Group with Diane Evans as Chairman worked out an extension of vacation time for both Thanksgiving and Spring Term holidays. Jerry O'Brien's Traffic Committee provided for a system of traffic rules and fines, and saw to the completion of a new parking lot for the college. The Speaker's Service Committee helped to fill requests from the Publicity Department for student speakers.

During the national elections the group sponsored a community car pool and baby-sitting service to enable Winter Park and Orlando citizens to vote. Previous to November 4 Council co-operated with the Sandspur in a straw vote election designed to incite student interest in the national program.

Student Council recognized the Stray Greek Club as a social group on the campus and granted it voting power within the Council.

Pelican improvements, rules and regulations were brought to the attention of all the social groups and an all-out campaign to remodel the beach house was put into effect.

Representatives of the Council were sent to the Florida Intercollegiate Student Government and Press Association Convention in Daytona Beach. At this same convention which met in Miami Jon Dunn-Rankin and Bruce Lee were elected Presidents of both the State Student government and Press Associations. This was the first time in the history of the organization that both the presidents had come from the same college.

Other activities included the purchasing of spot lights and flood lights for student rental purposes; the sponsorship of the Halloween Night Party and Homecoming Bonfire; sending over 100 duplicate books from the Mills Memorial Library to Germany; a campus tour for German students visiting from the University of Florida; and many other varied projects throughout the year.

John DeGrove piloted the Student Council through the year 1952-'53 as President.

Members of the Sandspur and Council discuss plans for their Nov. Straw Election.

Theatre

The Annie Russell Theatre, center of dramatic activity at Rollins, enjoyed an unusually prosperous season this year. Under the direction of Howard Bailey and his associate, Wilbur Dorsett, the Rollins Players presented to the college and the community a wide variety of plays including "The Grass Harp" by Truman Capote and "Gramercy Ghost," both of which had recent Broadway productions, and Oscar Wilde's perennial success, "The Importance of Being Earnest" which was the Founder's Week presentation. In association with the Rollins Music Guild, the Rollins Players gave "Spring For Sure" and the Independent Women sponsored an original student directed musical by Howard Richards. General student participation in the plays supplemented the work of the theatre majors and this cooperation resulted in better productions. Scenery was designed and executed by Dick Verigan.

Rollins' experimental theatre, The Fred Stone, located across the street from the ART had an equally successful season under the able direction of Professor Donald Allen. Hits of the season included "Icebound" by Owen Davis, "The Great Big Doorstep" and a series of one-act plays written and directed by Rollins senior George Lymburn.

Howard Bailey, Annie Russell, Director.

Citizens of Slippery Creek, Tennessee shout it's "Spring For Sure" on Cindy and Jeremiah's wedding day.

Nancy's three admirers get together in the Gramercy Square Apartment.

Righteous citizens give the judge a hard time while attempting to remove him from "The Grass Harp's" mammoth tree.

Weeks of concentrated practice sessions such as those above preceed any theatre productions. An audience watching the play in progress would find it hard to believe that it did not "just come naturally," but was the result of rehearsals, informal meetings, endless repetition of scenes, lines and word.

Music

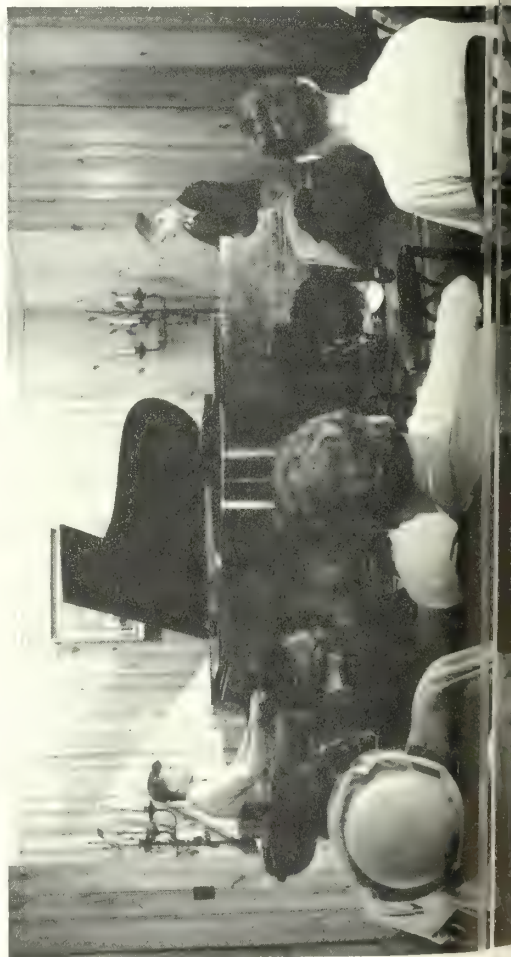

Chapel Choir follows the directions of Peter Gram Swing as he leads an anthem during Morning Meditation.

The Class of 1966 participates in Community Courses.

Friday afternoon recitals in Dyer are an important part of the music student's education.

Music can be found in many forms and many places on the Rollins Campus. Sunday morning the Chapel Choir performs, Monday night means Bach Choir, Glee Club holds priority on Wednesday, Friday afternoons are set aside for student recitals, and community courses are held throughout the week, all as part of the Conservatory's program of education.

The Rollins Glee Club numbering some sixty strong are shown entertaining at the Diamond Jubilee Dinner. Miss Sally Monsor is the able director.

The Morse Gallery of Art has many fine exhibitions throughout the school year.

Art at Rollins is very active. Under the direction of the fine art faculty, many students are learning the basic fundamentals of painting and art sculpture, and can be seen scattered about the campus and Winter Park putting their knowledge to creative work.

Art

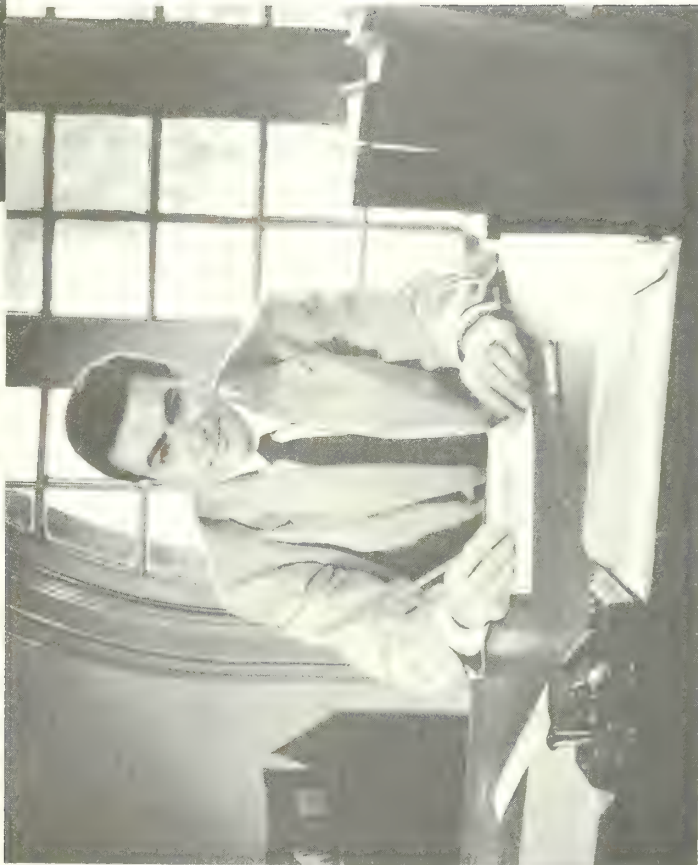

The Art Studio is an active place, with above future artists receiving helpful instruction.

Sandspur

The Sandspur is a student written, edited and published weekly newspaper which serves the entire "Rollins Family." It keeps the students informed of the college-world through its news, feature and sports pages while stating related opinions in the editorial columns.

The Sandspur has the versatility of a big city newspaper, and its circulation figures well over 1,000. The Editor is chosen annually in Spring Term by an all-college election, and in turn he chooses his editorial executives. Together they operate the newspaper with the help of staff workers. The business and advertising Managers are also picked in the all-college election; they hold the purse strings of the publication. The Faculty Advisor helps to chart the course of the paper whenever his help is needed.

PUBLICATIONS UNION, R BOOK, AND FLAMINGO

The Publications Union conducts, manages and sees to the publication of four major literary efforts throughout each year. The Sandspur, Flamingo, Tomokan and R Book offer students interested in either the fields of journalism or literature a chance for first-hand experience through not only creative writing, but also reporting, proofreading, photography, advertising and circulation. The Board of Control is made up of the editors, business managers and faculty advisors of the four publications.

The "R" Book, or the Freshman Bible, as it is sometimes called, is the source of information for all entering students at Rollins. It is from this publication that the frosh usually get their first view of Rollins life, for here they can read up on everything from fraternity-sorority rushing, what to wear to "Beans," or canoe regulations.

The Flamingo took as its slogan for this year, "Bigger and Better." Everyone who worked on the magazine from the advisor and the editor on down had only that aim in mind. The Flamingo serves as a forum for student writers and its success is due to college interest and participation.

Chapel Activities

Chapel Staff pauses during one of its famous "informal meetings," Bud Felix was President of this group which directed Chapel affairs.

Myra Brown directed the activities of the Race Relations Committee this year.

USO, nurseries and infirmiry radios were present on Jane Laverty's agenda for Community Service.

Roy Seckinger's Chapel Ushers performed each Sunday.

The Chapel Staff under the direction of President Bud Felix guided the religious program on the Rollins campus, working through six different committees.

The International Relations Club, headed by Diane Evans, studied and discussed those problems which affect our relations through the world. Each year World Student Service Fund and the two war orphans, Theodore and Wieslaw, receive a large share of IRC's budget.

Community Service Committee, under the leadership of Jane Laverty, worked hand in hand with both county and local welfare agencies. Girl Scout tours, USO programs, the Day Nursery and a new radio for the Infirmary were a few of this year's projects.

Race Relations Committee, headed by Myra Brown, co-operated with the Winter Park Racial Committee in practical community projects. The group sponsored an annual Race Relations Sunday, held February 8 this year, under the chairmanship of Hal Broda. Aid to two Seminole boys, Christmas gifts for the Welfare Home and Colored Day Nursery, and a stove for Hannibal Square's Library were among their projects.

The Choir also comes under the jurisdiction of the Chapel Staff. It participated in Morning Meditation each Sunday and presented an annual Christmas and Spring Term program for the college.

Roy Seckinger was chairman of this year's Chapel Ushers who took charge of all services sponsored by the Chapel.

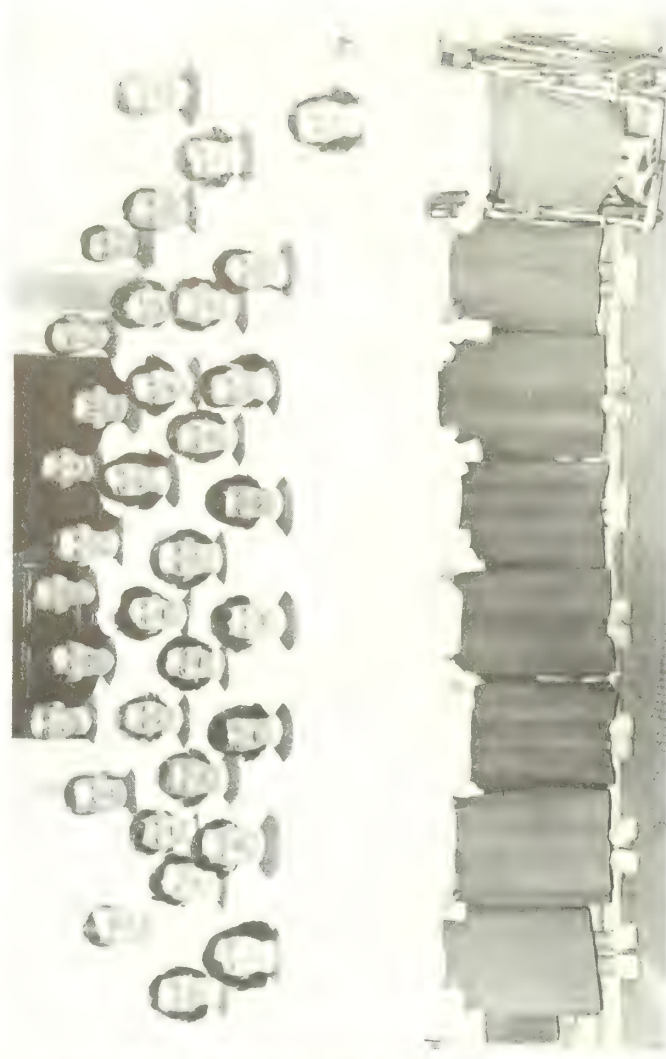

The After-Chapel Club met Sunday mornings with Dean Darrah and members of the faculty or visiting speakers for discussion of religious topics and problems which pertained to the students.

This year's Chapel Fund Drive was extremely successful and exceeded the goal of $2,000. Dave Redding and Louise Mullin served as the co-chairmen of the Drive.

Diane Evans kept the International Relations Committee informed on world affairs.

Chapel Choir took part in each Sunday's Morning Meditation service in Knowles Memorial Chapel.

WHO'S WHO in american universities and colleges

Active participation in student government, athletics, publications, music and drama have won for twelve seniors this year the honor of election to Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. These students have demonstrated those qualities in addition to scholastic and leadership ability. This selection is made annually and receives national circulation among leading corporations.

Election to O.O.O.O., men's honorary organization, is one of the biggest honors a Rollins man can receive. The purpose of this secret organization is to create, preserve, and foster the traditions and ideals of Rollins, to promote respect for the customs of the college and to develop a spirit of leadership in the student body.

KEY SOCIETY

Membership in the Rollins Key Society is by invitation and is open to upper division students only. The honorary was founded in 1937 to "study, discuss, and strive to further the best interests of Rollins College" and to maintain scholarship and extracurricular activities on a high plane. Participation in campus activities, scholarship and the character of the individual are the basis upon which membership is conferred. Members are Dodi Manning, Judy Munske, and Tom Nelson.

Key Society's Dodi Manning and Judy Munske are Rollins top scholars.

LAMBDA KAPPA PI

On February 4, 1953, the Lambie Pi's held their first meeting. Following is an exception from their minutes.

"An informal meeting was called to disorder by President Falstaff Felix at 3:15 p. m. It was reported that pictures had been taken that morning with an unknowing advisor. The meeting was opened with a round. The floor was swept with a discussion of songs, sweat-shirts, tee shirts, hats and insignia. Chaplain Cushing played the Hammond. We went another round being served by a man in a greasy shirt as the bartender was indisposed.

'Bock' Redding raised a point of order that fraternity sister Hall was not being called by her proper name of 'Hennessey' Hall—the bartender appeared. Plans for candle-lit ceremonies were discussed and the Candlelight was chosen as the appropriate place. The group being broke, the meeting was adjourned at 5:15 p. m.

The German Club was formed to bring together outside of classroom activity those students interested in the German language and culture.

Members of the Pan-American Club have attempted to increase knowledge of the Americas and to broaden the outlook concerning other countries of the Western Hemisphere through their organization.

The French Club has provided a chance for all students of French to get together informally, speak the language, and explore the cultural aspects of French customs and civilization.

Mmes. Grand and von Boecop preside over the French Club, thus lending a Continental touch.

Basketball

Rollins started the basketball season this year with a team lacking experience but well supplied with plenty of "Scrap" as Coach Joe Justice calls it. Despite this and a height disadvantage the team improved steadily throughout the season until they had developed a polished court strategy and nimble ball handling that was clearly evident in the last two games of this season. The team will be returning next year with plenty of experience and the promise of a much better year.

Coach Joe Justice demonstrates to the squad how it's done during an afternoon practice. Come on, Nick, pay attention!

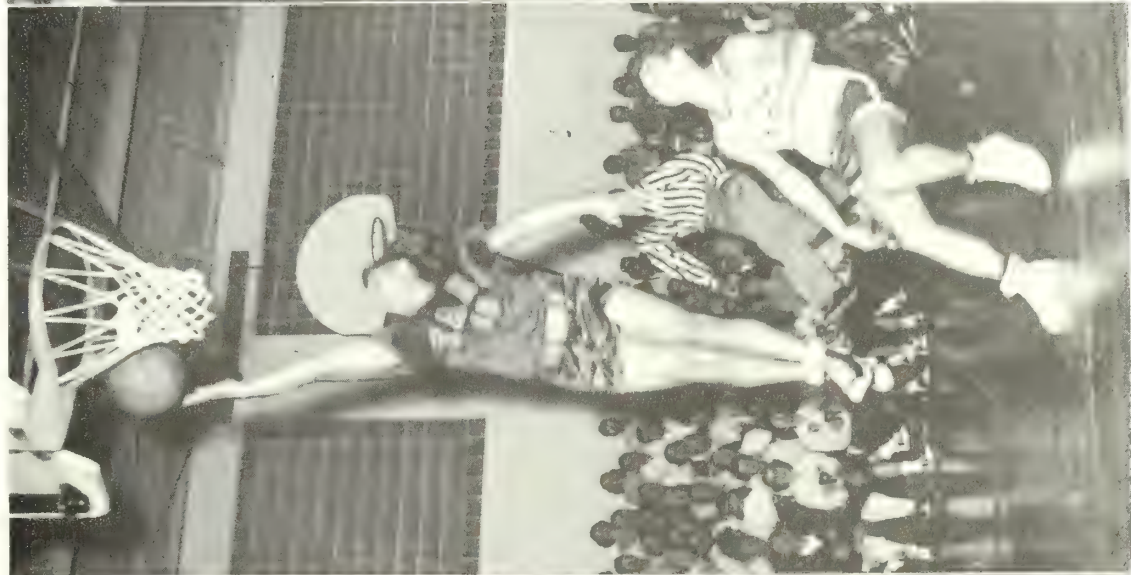

The Tars were sparked by two outstanding players, Nick Vancho and Bob MacHardy, both elected All-State stars. MacHardy led the scoring with 446 points, an average of 21.2 per game. He sank 35% of his shots. Vancho followed closely with 397 points, an average of 18.9 points per game. Not bad for a freshman in his first year of college basketball.

Dick Gordon, Julian Cunningham and Stew Turlley, all first-year men, came into their own toward the end of the year after a demoralizing seven game losing streak. Connie Mack Butler and Jim Bocook played steady supporting roles all season, Connie Mack ending with a very creditable 12.4 average.

There's no doubt that next year when the Tars hit the hard wood once again, there will be a much improved, much more dangerous, much much wiser quintet, wearing the blue and gold colors. The team will have the added advantage of having all this year's lettermen returning next fall.

WOMEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Women's Varsity Basketball team has had a tremendous season. This year they have won six games out of seven starts. The one loss was to a heartbreaker, losing to R. H. Hall of Tampa. The final score of this game was 57-56. The girls have also been leading the Orlando League.

Carol Farquharson and Nancy Corse, each playing their second year on the varsity, have been leading the team in scoring throughout the season.

Baseball

The Tars compiled a 17-14 record in 1952 under Coach Joe Justice, and opened the 1953 season with only two regulars missing from the previous line-up. The first game was with Tampa at home on March 17.

North Carolina, Georgia Tech, Amherst, and Cincinnati were among the intersectional rivals of this year's schedule.

Last year Rollins split with Carolina at Chapel Hill, whipped Alabama and went on to compete in the District Three N.C.A.A. playoffs at Charlotte, N. C.

The Tars played a full complement of games against State opponents this year. The university of Florida, Miami, and Stetson were played four times each.

The "Big Three" pitching staff consisted of Bill Cary, Frank Hutsell and Don Tauscher.

Art Brophy, freshman outsider-pitcher, made it a foursome. Other newcomers were Nick Vancho at short, Dave Smith and Julian Cunningham at first, and Dick Gordon at the plate.

Returning regulars were Bob MacHardy at first, Fred Talbot, Second or shortstop, Delton Helms, third, and catcher Don Finnigan. In the outfield Connie Mack Butler, Al Daynor and John DeCarville returned.

Crew

"Take it up" has been the cry on Lake Maitland for the past months. The grunts and groans of the oarsmen, and the amplified orders of Coach

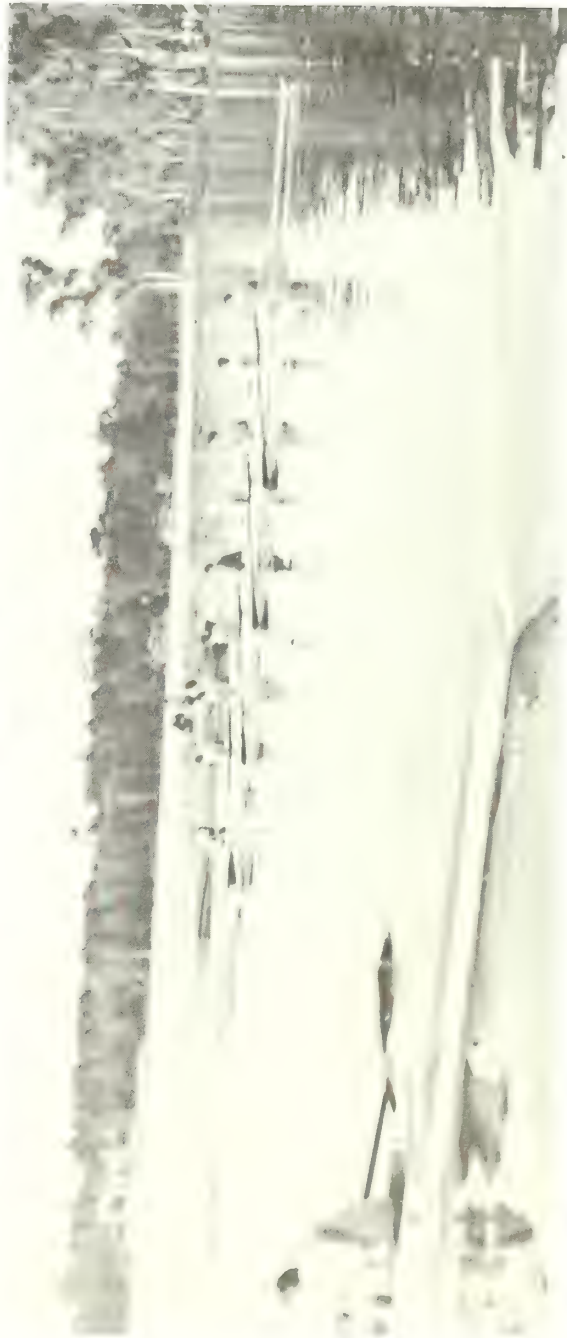

Bradley have echoed from shoreline to shoreline. The strained and aching muscles, the badly blistered palms, and that exhausted and smelly feeling that comes from hard work, are all indications that these boys have really been pulling.

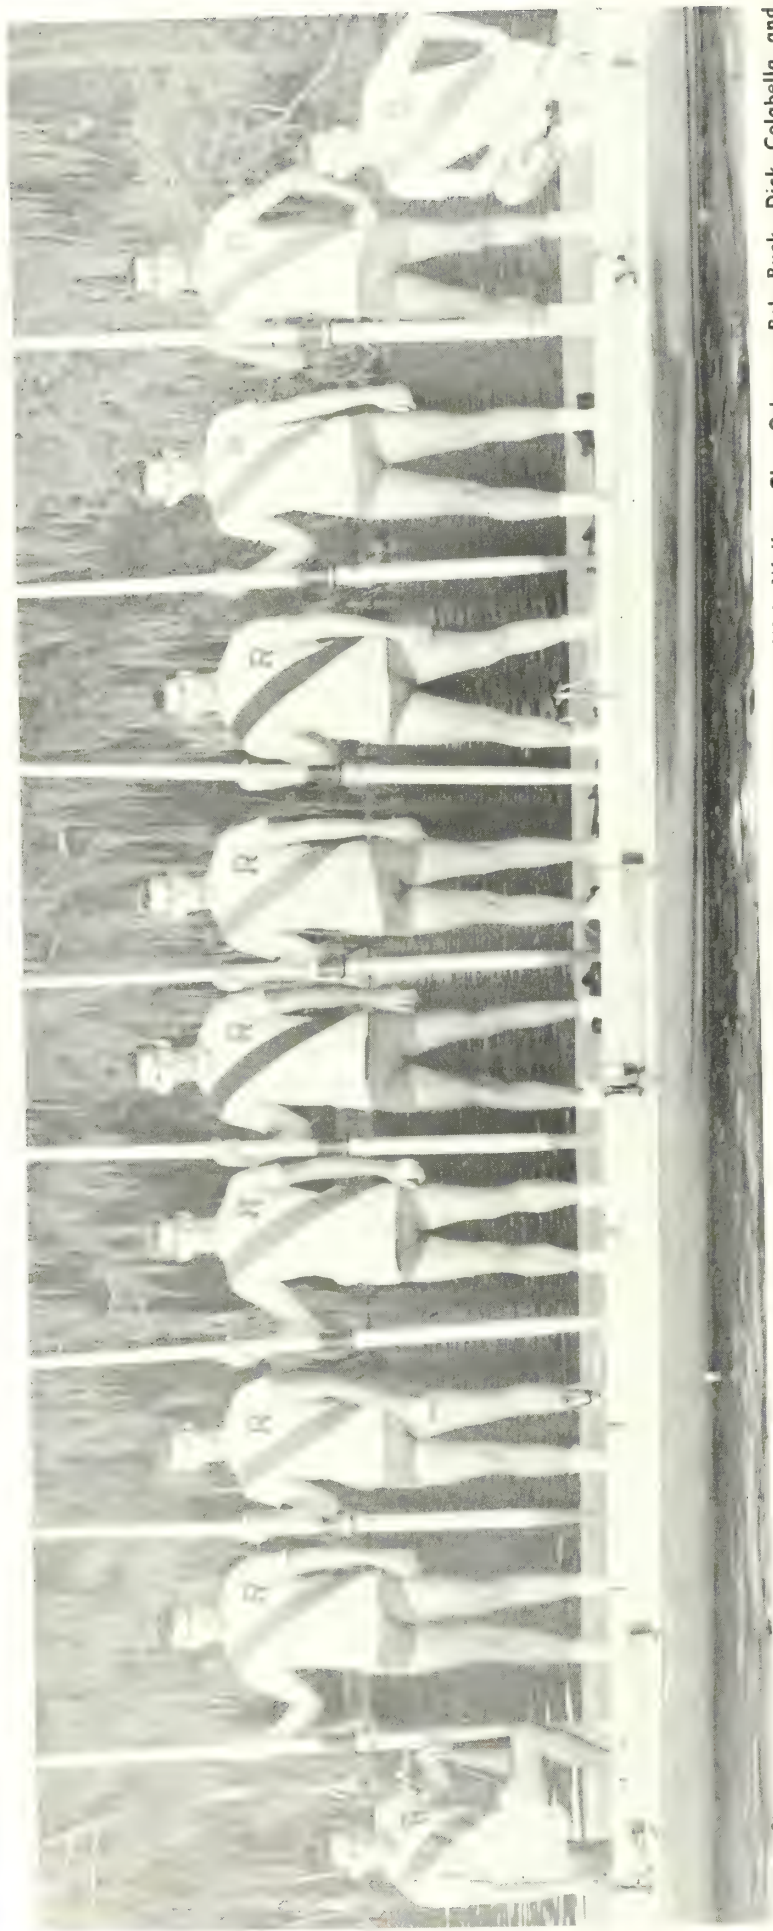

Coach U. T. Bradley inspects the finish of a varsity shell.

 Second Row: Don Weber, Bud Bilensky, Buck Class, Ronny Trumbull, Norman Gross, Skillman Suydam,

It takes a good deal of care to launch a shell. First it has to be carried out of the shed, placed gently into the water, boarded one foot at a time, and finally shoved off.

As the race is completed and Rollins clearly has been the winner, we see the oarsmen only now just beginning to slow the forward motion of their craft. "Brad" in launch watches with pride.

Lining up for their Junior Varsity Group picture are Joe Dallanegra, Bill Karslake, Jim Vickers, Sam Barley, Bill Wright, Web Walker, Glen Osborne, Bob Buck, Dick Colabella and Jerry Campbell.

Returning lettermen number six. They are Don Weber, Buck Class, Ronny Trumbull, Norm Gross, Frank Thompson, and John Boyle. These stalwarts are vying with newcomers Bud Bilensky, Russ Sturgis, and Skillman Suydam for positions in the Varsity shell, the Dixie Rebel. Louis Fusaro is the capable slave driver, better known as the Coxswain.

The Junior Varsity is composed of men, while lacking in experience, that are eager to prove their ability. The J. V. shell is made up of Bill Karslake, Jim Vickers, Sam Barley, Bill Wright, Web Walker, Glen Osborne, Bob Buck, Dick Colabella, Jerry Campbell and Joe Dallanegra, Coxswain.

The Climax of the season was, of course, the Florida State Championship. This was rowed on our home course this year, perhaps giving us an immediate advantage, as we were victors by a close three feet.

The annual Dad Vail Regatta was held this year in Philadelphia. This race is to small universities and colleges what the Poughkeepsie is to the larger teams.

The 1953 Crew was the best that Rollins has claimed for many years. It had a very successful season.

Tennis

A 13-match schedule was played by the strong Rollins College Tennis Teams.

The Tars won 10 and 11 dual matches in 1952 and had back their big four, Calhoun Dickson, Alfredo Millet, Alberto Danel and Eduardo Garcia. Dickson is Florida public courts champ, Millet and Danel are Mexican Davis Cuppers, and Garcia is a former junior champion of Chile.

The Tars have lost to only one team, Miami in the last five seasons, and have met many of the nation's finest college teams. This year was no exception, with Duke and North Carolina from the Southern Conference and Virginia among the opponents.

The season opened on March 25, with Duke invading Winter Park, the big matches were slated for April 4 at Miami, and April 25 in Winter Park.

Rollins won 9 out of its 11 matches this season, losing only to Miami.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The names of former women tennis players at Rollins read like a page out of "Who's Who in American Tennis." Such stars as Shirley Fry, Dodo Bundy, and Pauline Betz are but a few of the national champions who have come from our courts. The lustre of such notables as predecessors is always an incentive for current players to work even harder at their games.

Reading clockwise, are Nancy Corse, Sue Bralower, Mildred Thornton, Bev Siebert, Carmen Lampe, and Pat Stewart practicing their shots.

Golf

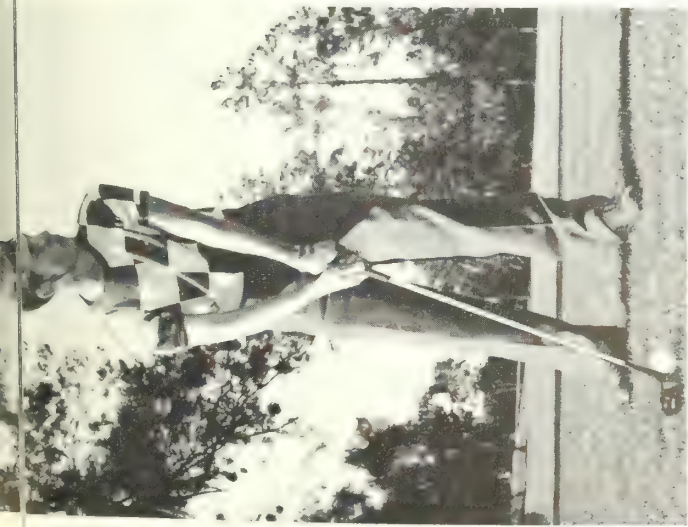

Hard at work under the ever increasing heat of the Florida sun, this spring the Rollins Golfers are patiently trying to overcome an exasperating array of hooks, shanks, and slices that have cropped up over the few months of winter inactivity, until with a painful surety their scores are slowly sinking under par.

Clyde Kelly's golf team this year must make up in talent what it lacks in experience to crack the tough schedule that lies ahead. Larry Bentley, a four-year man, captains a squad made up entirely of freshmen with the exceptions of Bruce Remsberg and Ernie Eichelberg. Bill Teunis, a senior, made his first appearance on the Rollins ladder this year.

Much of the team's success lies in the hands of three crack newcomers; Bill Boggess, Denny Folken, and Terry Temple.

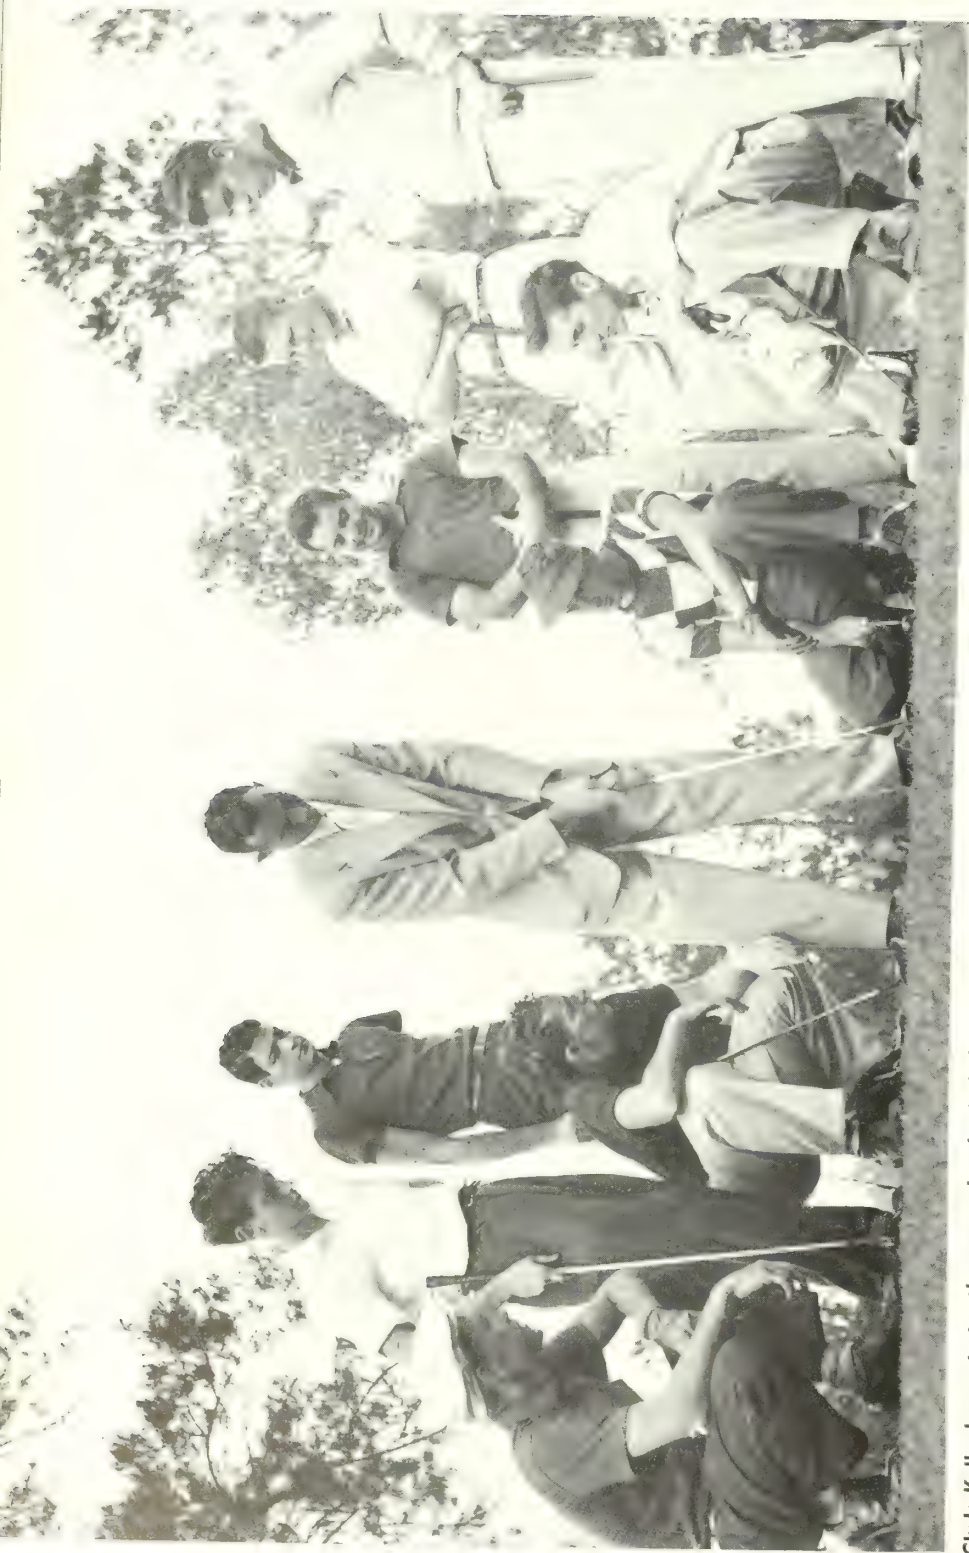

Predicts Kelly, "The Golf prospects will improve late in the season." Perhaps by then his eager freshmen and campaigning veterans will have mastered their game enough to enable them to win the all important Southern Intercollegiate Tournament in Athens Georgia, May 1, 2.

The team had a disappointing season, with two wins and five losses.

Beginning at ten o'clock and reading counter clockwise, we have Bill Boggess, Terry Temple, Denny Folken, Bruce Remsburg, Bill Teunis, Gene Bryant, Tim McGuire, Larry Bentley, and Ernie Eichelberg. As you can see they are all hard at work, practicing up on their different shots, and getting their accuracy razor sharp.

Clyde Kelly demonstrates the proper hand grip before his regulars. All the boys are scrappers and never say die, so here's to a successful season.

WOMEN'S GOLF

As the pictures on this page will bear out, when our fair coeds hit the links, it is a pretty sight. These girls, Mary Ann McDonald, Marlene Stewart, Donna Knox, and Barbara Bremerman are two-thirds of the Rollins' Girls' Golf Team. Missing members are Allee Chatham, and Marilyn Klumb.

This year the girls have no regular matches scheduled. They do have several intercollegiate contests with the Stetson University Girls' Golf team, and with the members of Dubsdread Country Club, and the Orlando Country Club. However, the girls have been competing actively about the state in various tournaments.

We are indebted to the Dominion of Canada for sending down one of her finest athletes to Rollins. Marlene Stewart was this year named the Canadian "Woman Athlete of the Year." She has an excellent game, and should add many laurels to her crown.

There's no better place to perfect a long straight wood shot than the practice screen say Barb, Mary Ann, Donna, and Marlene. This foursome would look good on anyone's golf course.

Intramurals

Mrs. Anna Wheeler is shown with a portion of her equestrian class. This group is practicing for the annual Rollins Horse Show in April.

Sarah Jane refs, Jackie Kenney, Chi O, scores. Sally Beauchamp, Pi Phi catcher, watches helplessly.

Pat Stewart, freshman, displays the graceful form which carried her through the stiff competitive field making up women's intramurals.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURALS

Women's Intramural sports at Rollins are always hotly contested. The girls participate in basketball, softball, volleyball, tennis archery, golf, the horse show, and swimming. Competition is justly keen, performance is surprisingly good, and attendance is naturally good.

The Theta's seem to be doing it again. Already they have won Women's Intramural basketball, and softball, and appear to be heading toward keeping their name on the Intramural Cup.

All the participants are to be congratulated for such fine sportsmanship displayed.

Jim Fay deserves fine blocking. This plus good passing and running won football for the Club. At right, Hunt spikes volleyball.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

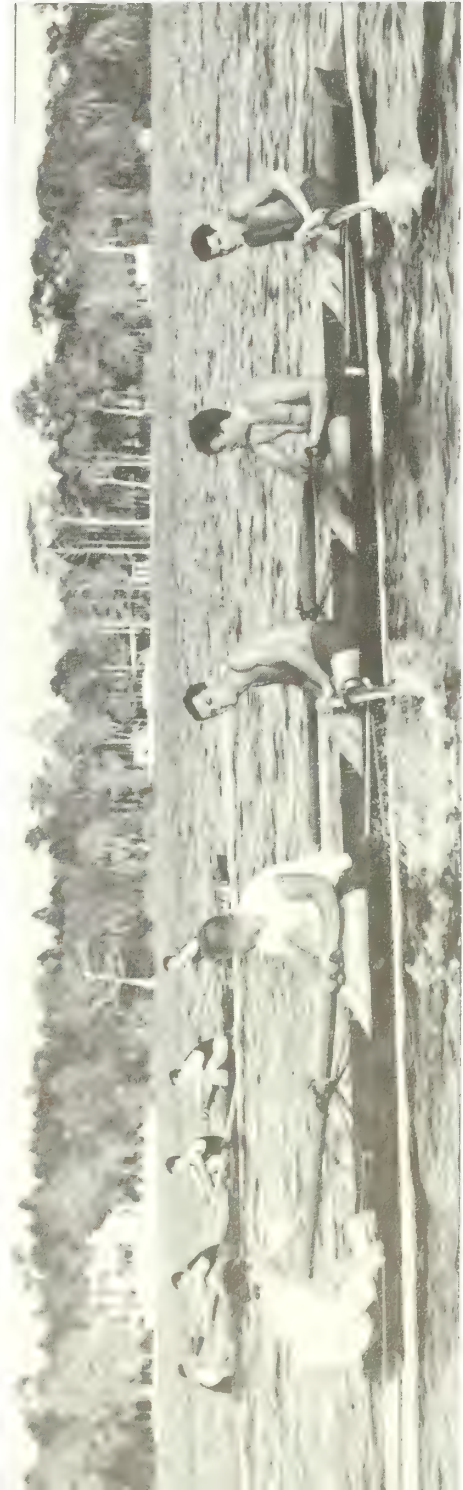

Intramurals account for a large portion of the male life at Rollins. Games are almost always played at a time when it would be much more fun to go to class or get up your laundry or register for the next term.

Yet game time comes, the different teams arrive, and play is begun. And they play their very hearts out.

Intramural sports annually include touch football, tennis, basketball, volleyball, swimming and softball. Currently the X Club is leading in points, and seems destined to repeat as champions, intramurals.

Yet game time comes, the different teams

PAN- HELLENIC COUNCIL

INTER- FRATERNITY COUNCIL

Russ Sturgis, Sigma Nu; Em Hunter and Bud Felix, Delta Chi; Dean Doran, Kappa Alpha; Roy Sockinger, Pres.; Lamar Brantley and Bob Leader, X Club; Bob Buck, Lambda Chi Alpha; and Jack McVey, Kappa Alpha.

Rollins' Panhellenic Council represents the seven sororities on campus in its attempt to keep fraternity life and relations on a high standard within the college. One delegate is elected from each chapter to serve on the council, and the presidency is held in rotation by the different groups according to their order of establishment. "Panhell" is especially active at the first of each school year with the problems that arise through sorority rushing.

The Inter-Fraternity Council serves much the same purpose as "Panhell" in that it strives to govern all inter-fraternity relations and to promote good will among the groups.

Each fraternity selects two of its members at the beginning of Fall Term to serve on the Council throughout the year.

STRAY GREEKS

Founded in the fall of '52, the Stray Greek Club has come a long way in securing a permanent place on the Rollins scene. Fully recognized by and represented on the Student Council, Panhellenic Council, and IFC as a regular social organization, this club provides opportunity for those lost souls of the Greek world, who are without a home on the campus.

Beauty

Beauty is an ephemeral thing. It is so intangible, so elusive so hard to define that our conception of it is constantly changing. As we leaf through Tomokans of ten and twenty years ago up through the present time, we notice that the skirt has risen to the knee and fallen nearly to the ankle in less than five years time. Hips have bulged to gigantic proportions only to disappear the next year under an array of ingenious restraining devices. Because of all this squeezing and padding of the female form by the designers of today and yesterday we find it hard to believe that the coed we have coffee with in the Center has essentially the same configuration as Adam's best girl Babette, Judy, Doane, Alice, and Dee pose informally in the Chapel garden. Unfortunately, not present is Jeannie Rogers.

in the Garden. We of the Tomokan staff realize that this year with its plunging necklines, long skirts and poodle cuts will be no exception; however, we think that being dated is one of the quaint charms of a yearbook, and we present to you without qualms the 1953 idea of beauty. These are our queens, and this is what they wear. We think they will compare favorably with the Gibson girl, the flapper girl, or any other "girl" that has existed or may be created in the future.

BEST TO TOMOKAN

 Reelins to West Kelly*

Following his Animated Magazine speech, Mr. Walt Kelly, who was voted the top cartoonist of 1953, and whose Pogo Possum is carried by the leading newspapers of the country, was approached and asked to make the Beauty Queen selection.

Mr. Kelly graciously declined, but allowed that he had a friend who would be delighted. Whereupon he tore off a sheet of paper, whipped out a black crayon, and within seconds, or so it seemed, there was Albert. Albert the Alligator was so overcome that he quite collapsed. The decision we admit was a hard one, as each candidate would make a lovely monarch, but his choice came in a final gasp as he sank to the floor, "Judy Hall is the 1953 Tomokan Beauty Queen!"

ORIENTATION

The Champion arrives, as usual two hours late, and disgorge Rollins Freshmen to be met by Orientation Committee.

President McKean gives a warm handshake at his reception for all entering students which was rained into the center.

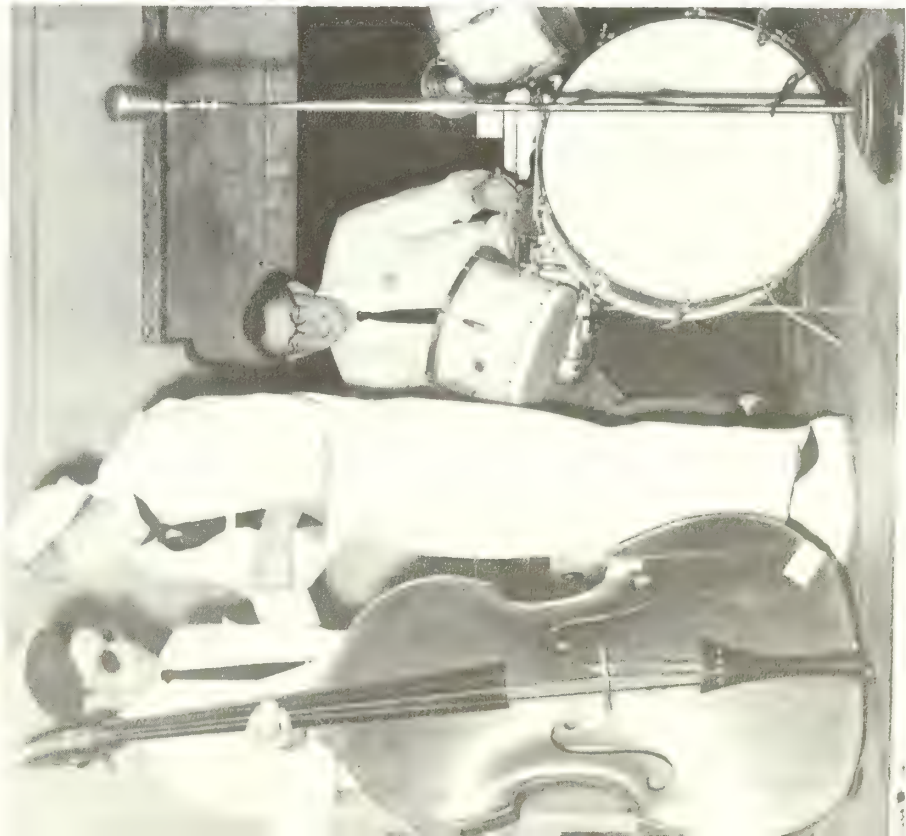

Fall Term

TALENT NIGHTS

Orientation week, designed to acquaint new entering students with Rollins, consisted this year of placement tests, meetings with the Deans of Men and Women, conferences with advisors, campus tours, the President's Reception, roller-skating parties and Center Patio square dance.

The Independent Men annually awards a handsome trophy for the most original and best campus talent. A series of elimination contests are held with the winners of each contest competing for the grand prize. There is much ability and talent present among Rollins students and the contests are always interesting and amusing.

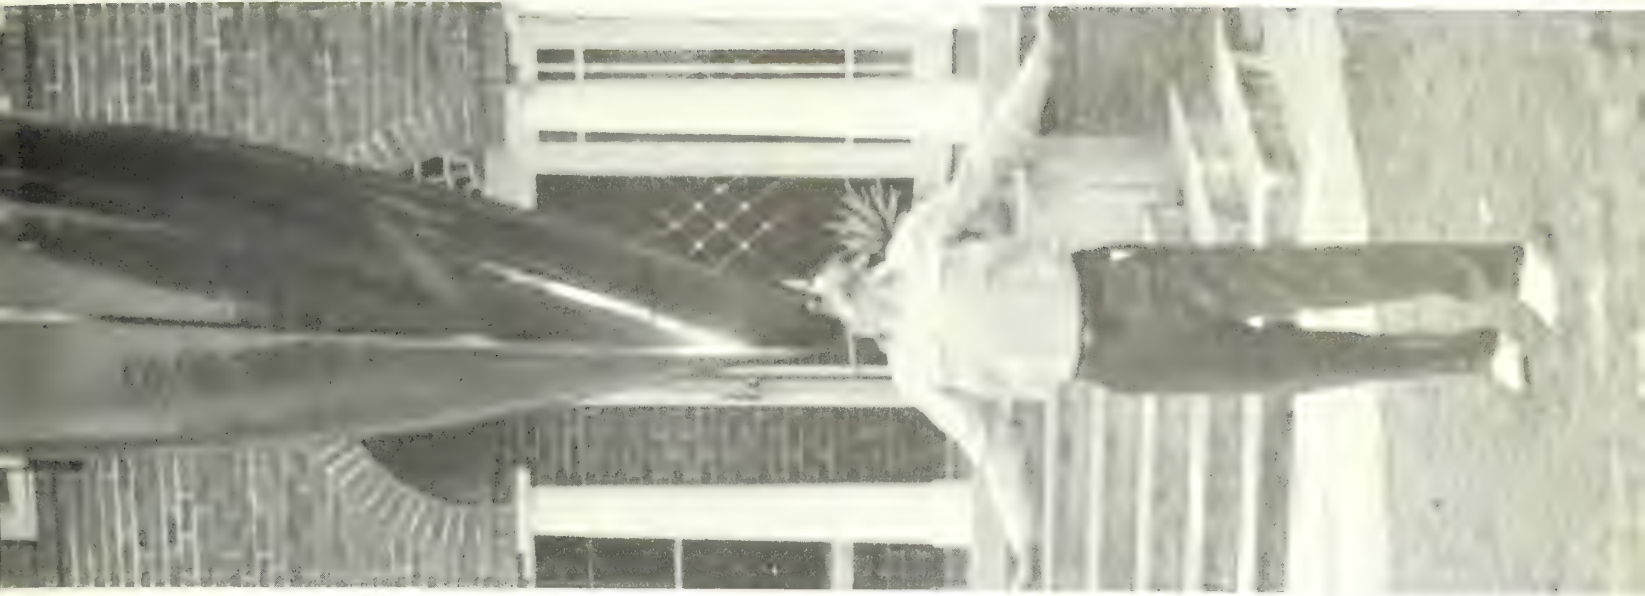

The X Club's fine comedy jazz band was runner-up in the talent contest.

Sally Beauchamp proved a fine contender.

K.A.'s Balancing Boyle's exhibition won talent contest. Here he demonstrates he can chin a canoe.

With much blushing and denials of fame from the interviewed, Jack McDowell talks with the "past greats" of Rollins athletic history; the Cheerleaders try their best to get a response from the Annie Russell audience as they announce the 1953 cheers.

A PEP RALLY AND A NATIONAL ELECTION

Rolly Colly got excited over a variety of things Fall Term from the national aspect such as the Presidential Election down to our own campus affairs, such as the opening of Basketball Season. Students turned out to do their part either, as shown here by giving a cheer or by babysitting for some civic-minded mama who stepped out to vote. The Athletic Department brought back all the big-named athletes in Rollins history in an effort to foster a little spirit at the basketball games. It payed off—the first night the stands were packed and after that, well—

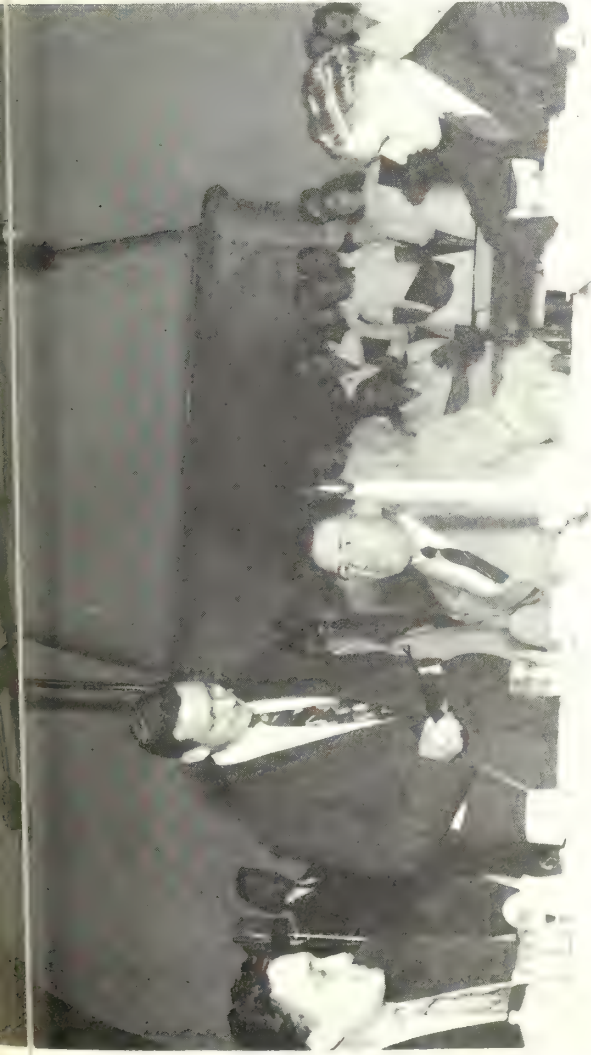

Student Council sponsored the Election Day program in which students offered services as baby-sitters and chauffeurs to the Orlando and Winter Park communities.

Jane Smith instructs the assembled group on the fine points of folding a diaper before beginning their babysitting assignments.

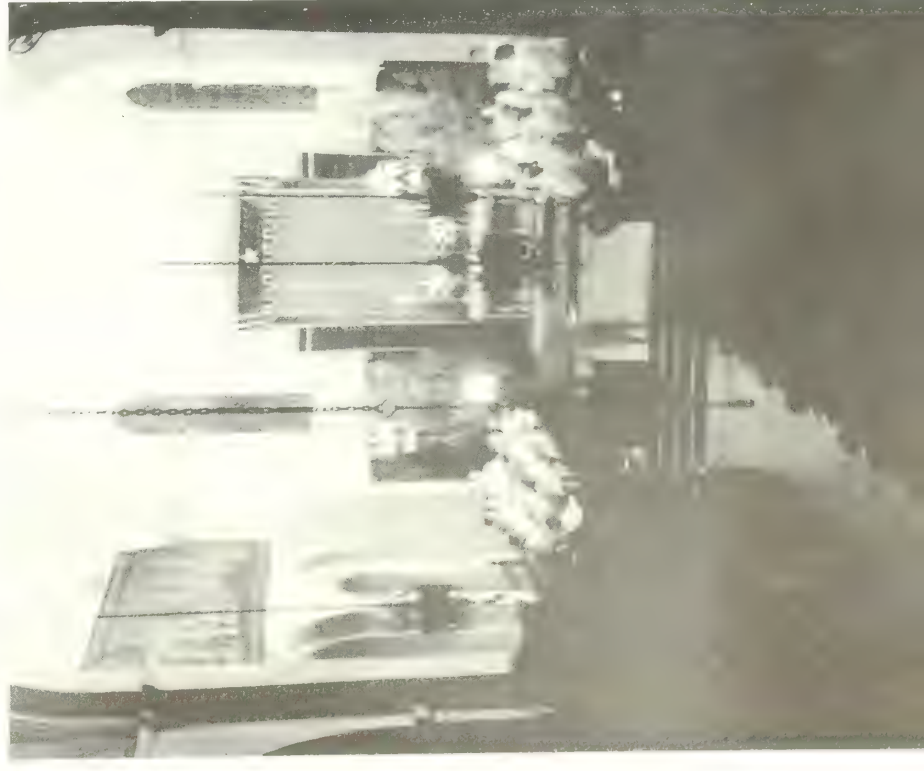

WPRK OPENING CHRISTMAS SERVICE CHRISTMAS PARTY

The early days of December were especially exciting this year with the opening of radio station, WPRK. A special dinner was held in honor of the occasion with speeches given by Presidents McKean and Eisenhower. The annual Christmas Program in the Chapel was beautifully presented by the choir as the final Chapel service before the holidays. As a climax to their Fall Term activities, the French Club made a little girl very happy with a Christmas Party in her honor.

Phil Gaines gets an on-the-spot report of WPRK's opening dinner; the choir waits to get in the act, too.

The choir sings of Christmas Eve—a child, a stable and a star.

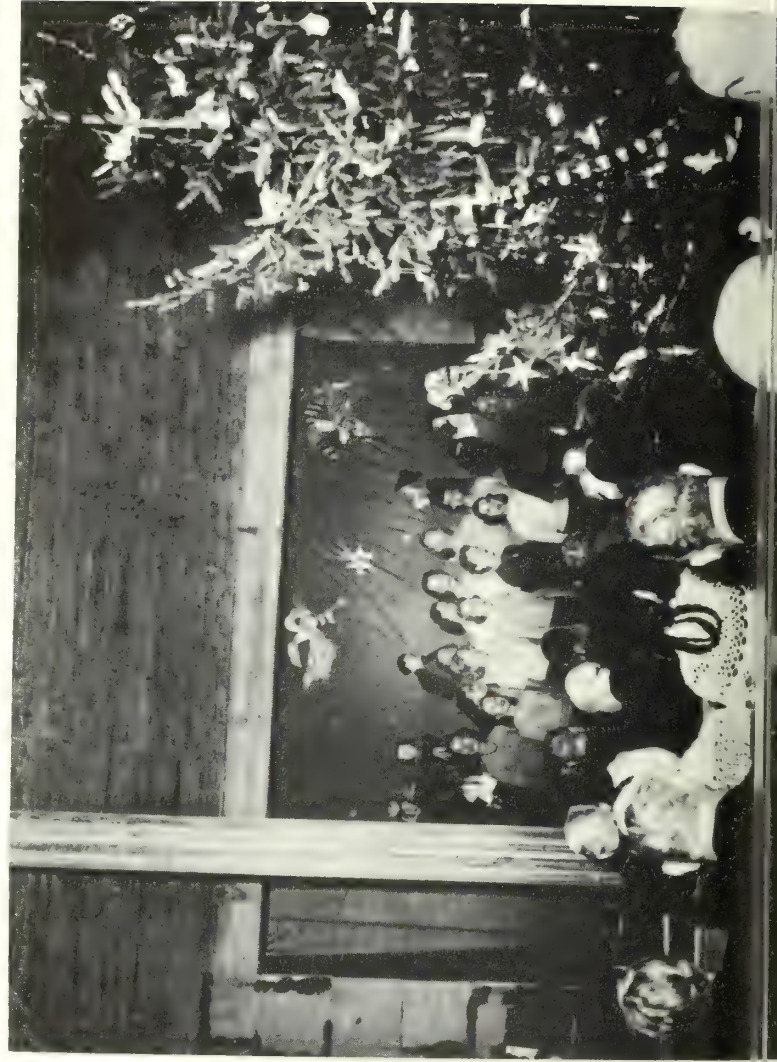

A new teddy bear for la petite enfante was provided by the French Club at their Christmas Party.

Operation Songlift

First Row: E. Martin, A. Goodrich, C. Hosmer, B. J. Lang, B. Eremerman, W. Gray, P. Sias, M. J. Martin, M. Smith, S. Rubinstein, S. Monsour, Director. Second Row: L. Saute, M. Shinton, A. Schuyler, A. Palmer, B. Bebout, C. Farquharson, R. Willmarth, D. Herblin, S. Rozier, F. Chapman.

The girls sang everywhere they went, bringing enjoyment to many different people. The photos show Songlift members performing at a Bermuda hotel and an Iceland Old Folks Home.

In a crescendo of noise, the roar of the motors, and the cheers of the crowd gathered at the Orlando Municipal Airport on December 12, 1952, Operation Songlift, Rollins' attempt to bring a little bit of Christmas to our fighting forces stationed on far-off and lonely bases in the Atlantic, began.

Massachusetts, Bermuda, Iceland, and Newfoundland all were brighter places because of the fine singing of the twenty girls, ably directed by Sally Monsour, accompanied by Ed Cushing and John Philips, and chaperoned (?) by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shelton.

Depot stations, airports, quonset huts, swank hotels, officer's clubs, Old Folks Homes, and barracks all were scenes of the choirs songs and novelty acts. Warm appreciative ovations and applause surrounded the troupe throughout the trip, and they returned to Winter Park on December 29, tired, but with the realization that they had done a hard job well.

Rollins students and faculty flocked to the airport December 12 to give the "Songlift" troupers a warm sendoff.

Flying above the clouds, snatching a bit of sleep between bases, traveling by bus, and making new friends during a brief stop-over were all different aspects of the "Songlift" trip.

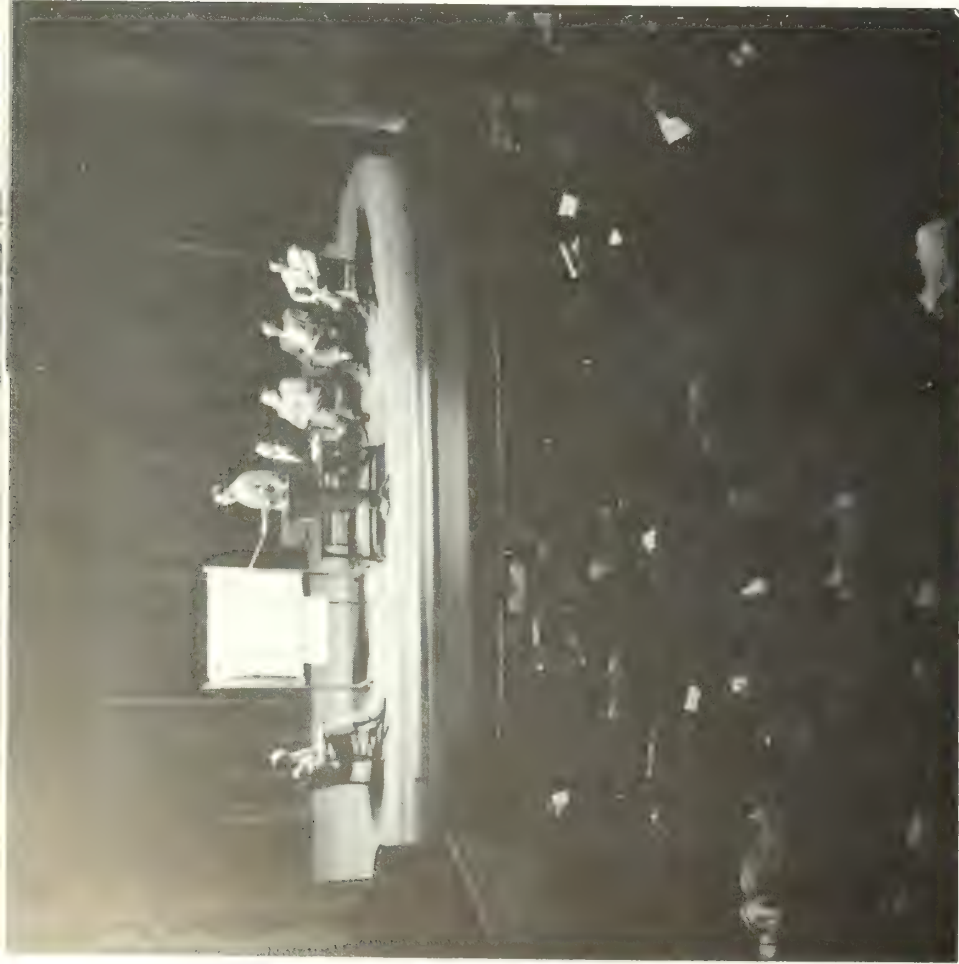

Winter Term

ECONOMIC CONFERENCE

This year, the eighteenth Annual Economic Conference had as its topic "The Cattle Industry," Dr. W. D. Robbins was the chairman of the Conference, The discussions, while concerned primarily with matters closely related to the cattle industry, also was concerned with major problems confronting business as a whole. All of the speakers were leaders in the cattle field, and had a thorough grasp of their material. Two outstanding features of the Conference was the exhibition corralled in front of the Annie Russell and a buffalo who didn't miss a session.

Mr. Charles Lykes demonstrates a pertinent point during his speech on Livestock grading and marketing.

During recesses of the session, cattlemen from all over the country examine some of Florida's best beef.

CLOVERLEAF FIRE

Fire alarms, bells, sirens, search lights, policemen, the Fire Department of Winter Park, excitement. Well, yes, you might say so. The Occasion? 1953 will probably be known as the year that Cloverleaf burned, but through the excellency of the sprinkling system, and the efficiency of the W. P. bucket brigade, it didn't burn enough. Summing up the fire in a few words, two in fact, "No Casualties."

Mrs. Willie cleans up mess due to falling plaster and the fire.

This crowd quickly gathered in front of Cloverleaf to watch the heroic efforts of the firemen to save the hapless freshmen girls from the rigors of disaster.

REEVE ORATORICAL CONTEST

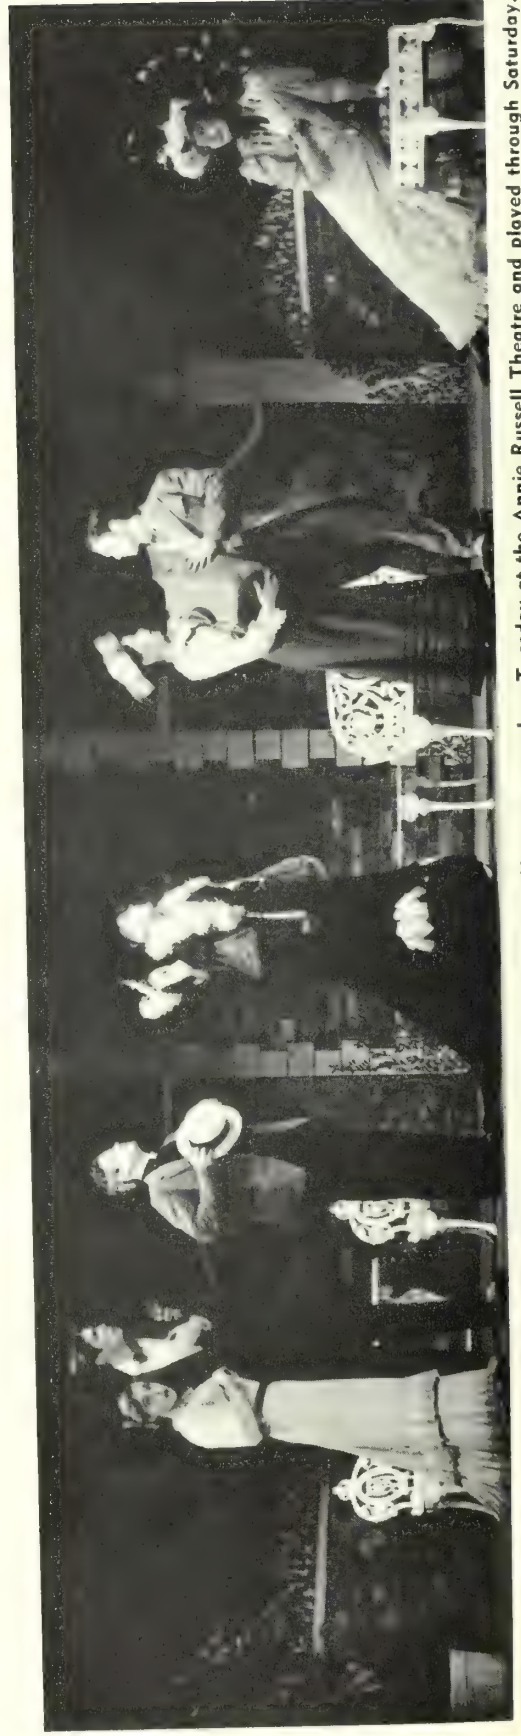

Jim Graaskamp was the Monday afternoon winner of the General Reeve Oratorical Contest over five fellow winners of the Essay Contest.

MORSE GALLERY EXHIBIT

Professor Tasker prepares the Contemporary Indian Art Exhibit, which was an outstanding success during Founder's Week.

"THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST"

"The Importance of Being Earnest" by Oscar Wilde, presented by the Rollins Players, opened on Tuesday at the Annie Russell Theatre and played through Saturday. A special performance was given for the contributors to the Animated Magazine.

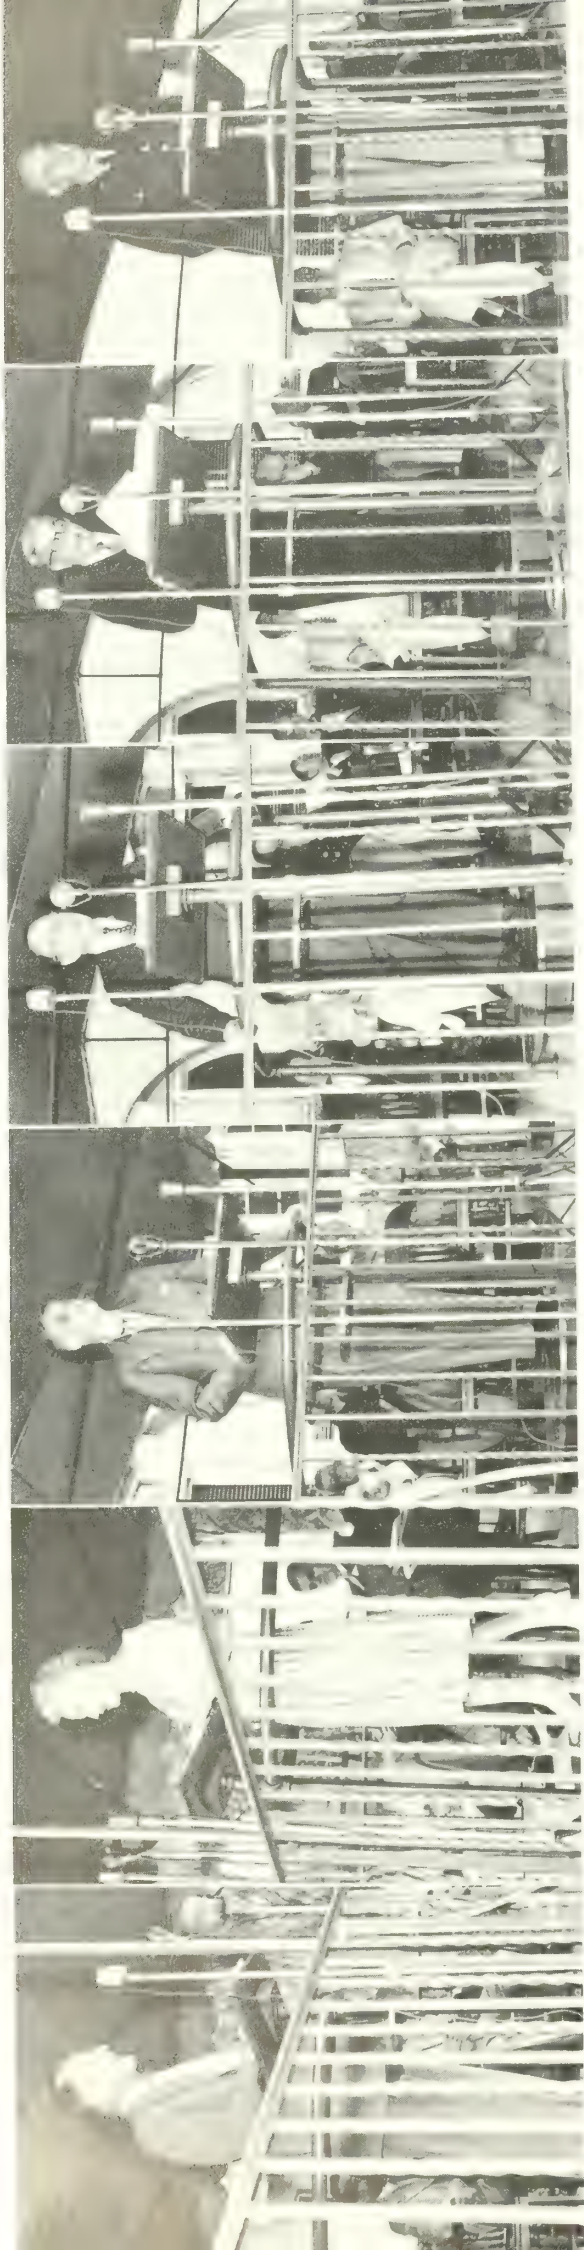

SHAKESPEAREANA

Flower and fresh fruit vendors plus old English madrigal singers transpose Strong Hall patio into the Globe Theatre for Shakespeare on Wednesday afternoon. The white flag raised, the show begins. Christine Chardon and Jon Dunn-Rankin here enact a scene from "Henry V." Presented by Nina Dean, the performance stars English, music, and theatre arts students.

RSS OPEN HOUSE

To explain some strange mysteries of nature, Professor Ralph Huntley demonstrates basic scientific principles at Rollins
Scientific Society's Open House
in Knowles Hall
all day Thursday.

The James Hollingsworths, NYU's Chancellor Heald, Admiral Kirk, Indian Ambassador Mehta, and General Bradley cover the Ani Mag international, educational and political fields.

Animated Magazine

In 1927 the Animated Magazine was born. It was born of the fertile mind of our late president Hamilton Holt, and has been fostered and improved by successors, until now it is truly a Rollins Institution.

From the first shivering audience of six hundred, subscribers now total ten thousand. The first issue was held in Rec Hall, and then moved out to the Sandspur Bowl the following year, where only on two occasions has it been "rained out."

Distinguished leaders in politics, arts, writing, humor, philosophy, diplomacy, news, music, sports, and education have contributed their live articles. A list of invited speakers would read like Who's Who.

The Table of Contents have included such names as Rex Beach, Cordell Hull, Sergei Koussevitsky, Henry R. Luce, Edward R. Murrow, Ogden Nash, Greer Garson, General Jonathan M. Wainwright, Carl Sandburg, Roy Crane, Soo Yong Huang, Marjorie Kinan Rawlings, Mary McLeod Bethune, Basil Rathbone, Mary Pickford and John Erskine.

The only one of its kind in America, the Ani Mag has gained national reputation of excellence, and offers a unique educational opportunity to many many Rollins Students, and distinguished visitors to Winter Park.

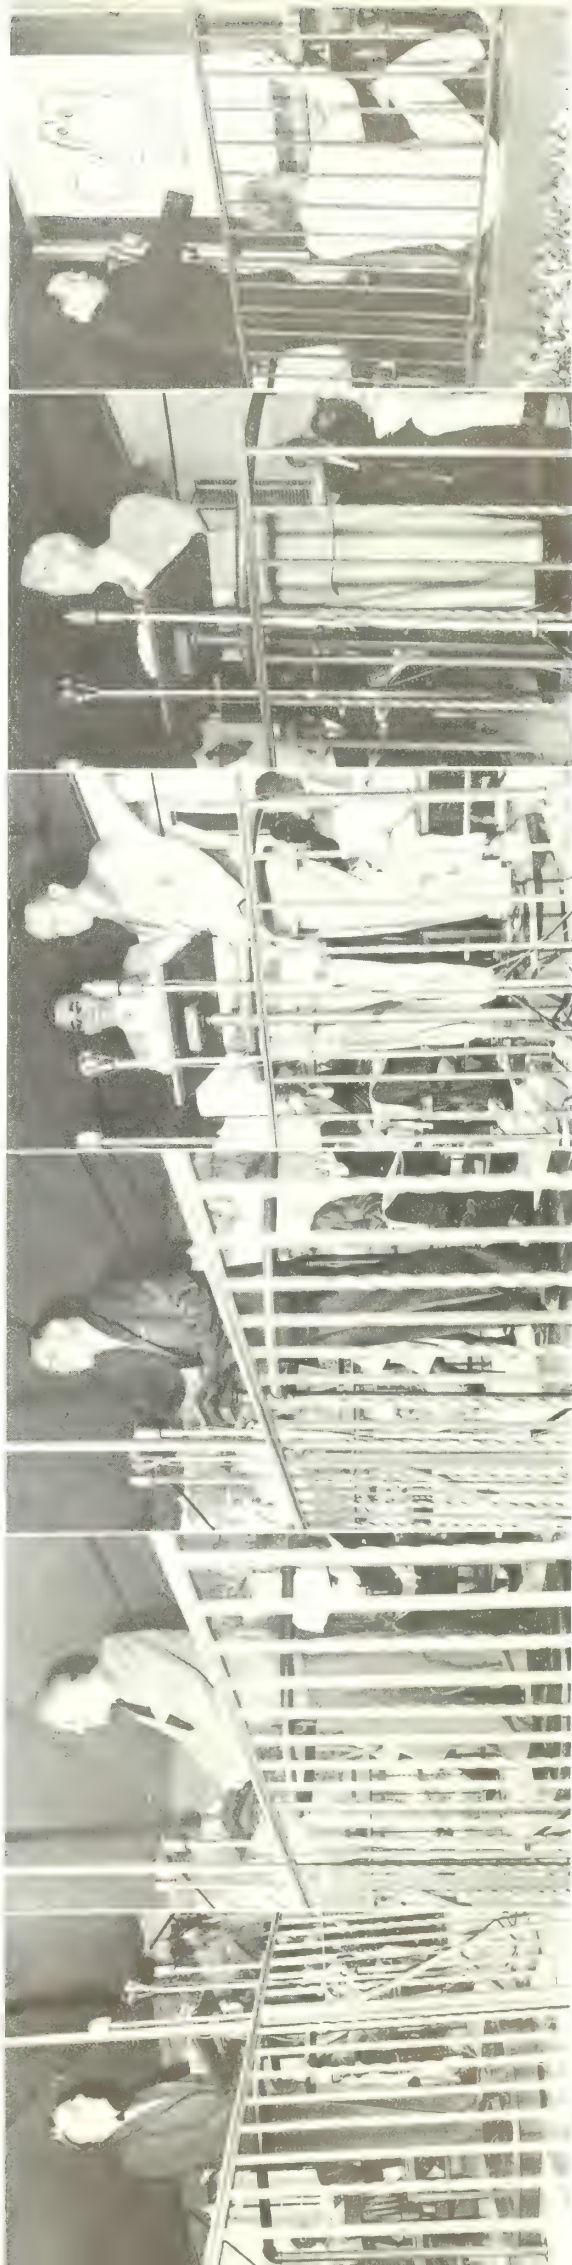

A portion of the large number of subscribers who crowded the Sandspur Bowl for this annual event listen attentively.

U. N. President Lester B. Pearson lounges against an oak as he enjoys antics of Kelly's Pogo.

Ani Mag departmental contributors: Hufstader, music; Harrison, architecture; Thompson, literature; boxer Davey, interviewed by McAllister, sports; Martin, editorial; and Kelly, comics.

ALUMNI LUNCHEON DIAMOND JUBILEE DINNER

Social events of Founders Week were varied and numerous.

One of the most outstanding was the Alumni Luncheon which was held on Saturday, February 21, at the University Club. Representatives of classes from the Gay Nineties to 1952 were present.

The social climax came on the same night with the Diamond Jubilee, which was held at the Orlando Country Club. Among the guests were the contributors to the Animated Magazine, and the Rollins Glee Club entertained with songs.

Representing many different classes, Rollins Alumni gather at the University Club for Founder's Week Luncheon.

Formal gowns and dinner jackets were the order of the evening, celebrating the Diamond Jubilee Dinner at the Orlando Country Club.

CONVOCAATION

At the Convocational Exercises held as the climax of Founder's week, U. N. General Assembly Lester B. Pearson delivered the principal address and was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Literature. Others receiving degrees as reward for their outstanding service to humanity were Mrs. A. I. Dupont, philanthropy, N.Y.U. Chancellor Heald, education, Mr. Wallace Harrison, architecture and Admiral Kirk, and Ambassador Mehta, diplomatic relations.

President McKean and U. N. official Pearson lead the academic procession at Convocation.

L. B. Pearson, H. T. Heald, W. K. Harrison, Mrs. A. I. Dupont, A. G. Kirk, G. L. Mehta, all received honorary degrees at the Convocation.

Lisa Maguire and Jay Peterson indulge in a Howard Richards' duet.

In an amusing skit non-Freshman Ingram plays non-Freshman Ingram and welcomes the group into Orientation Week.

THE FROSH FOLLY OF '53

The last of February found "The Frosh Folly" playing a one night stand to a packed Rec Hall. The production satirized most accurately and effectively student life in "Rolly Colly," bringing out those things familiar to everyone who has ever been a Freshman in this college. Jim Graaskamp, Kitty Fixx, Alison Dessau, Pat Schonlau, Joan Jennings and Cecily Bartlett directed the fifty-member cast which kept the audience laughing for over an hour.

Setting for the "Folly" was Winter Park's railroad station, first in September, then again in June after a full year of collegiate life. Professor Stu James was most effective as the wisened station master with his commentary on community attitudes toward the college.

18th ANNUAL BACH FESTIVAL

The 100 voice choir of the Annual Bach Festival presented three cantatas and Bach's B Minor Mass in the Chapel this march. The Festival was directed by Robert Hufstader and soloists were Rose Bampton, Harold Haugh, Lydia Summers, Ross Rosazza, and Norman Farrow.

The choir rehearsed each Monday night from early October until March under the direction of both Peter Gram Swing and Mr. Hufstader.

The following week a portion of the program was broadcast over the CBS network. It originated through the WPRK studios and was sent out over WDBO's airways.

The Bach Festival was founded by the late Mrs. Charles Sprague-Smith in 1935, and has brought outstanding musicians to Central Florida each year since to participate in the Festival programs.

This year's Festival included Cantatas No. 71, No. 56, No. 21 and the Mass.

Robert Hufstader directs with reeling.

Invited audience pays rapt attention to dress rehearsal.

Director Hufstader, soloists, orchestra and choir blend their musical talents in the presentation of the Bach Mass, three cantatas.

Aurora McKay, Alumni secretary, displays first Rollins diploma.

Mr. Robert Hufstader, formerly Juilliard Conservatory Choral Director joins the Rollins faculty. Also Prexy strikes a pose.

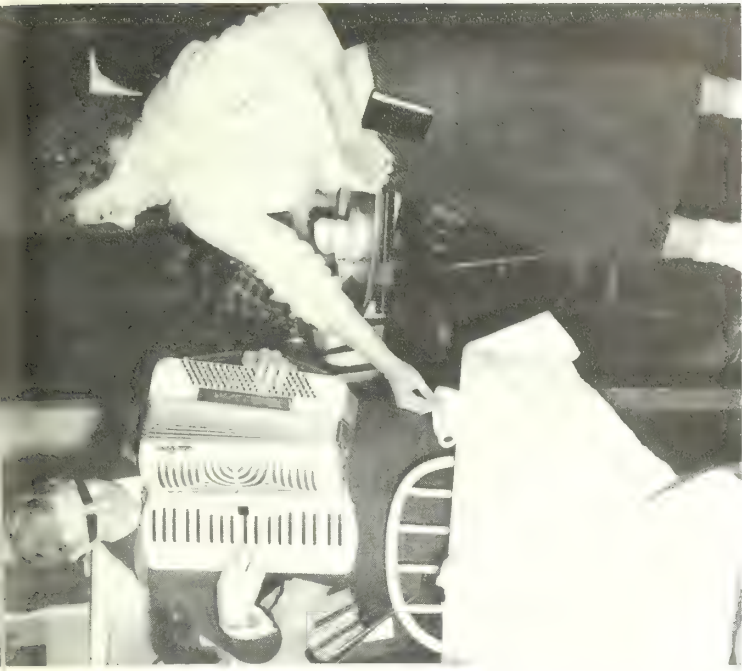

The Bach Festival Orchestra added immeasurably to the audiences general appreciation of the performances.

People

People are perhaps the most interesting of "all Gods' children." They can be loosely classified as to blond, brunette, or redhead, yet each person is individually differentiated from another. They represent many fields of endeavor, and their activities are numerous.

Nancy Auger contributes to the Diamond Jubilee Fund.
"Take off those dark brown glasses" we know you, Prexy.

Top: Even in Hollywood, Tony never had it so good, thanks to Marcia and Shorty. Middle: Lynn Martin and her grammar school class have a deep philosophical discussion. Bottom: Sheila was no doubt never told not to point.

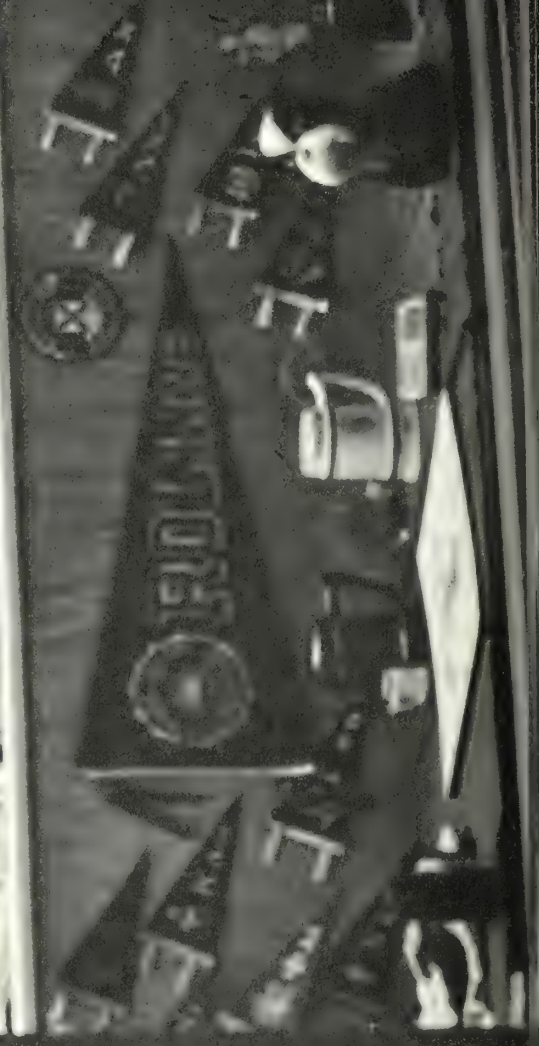

Barb, Marty, Sue, and Rae appear to have something in common, actually they all sing.

Foreign countries are very well represented at Rollins by this fine group of students.

Candid

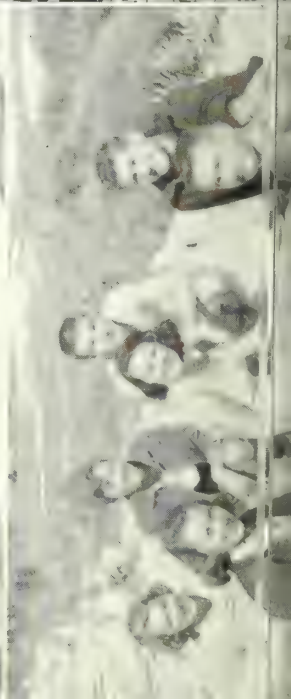

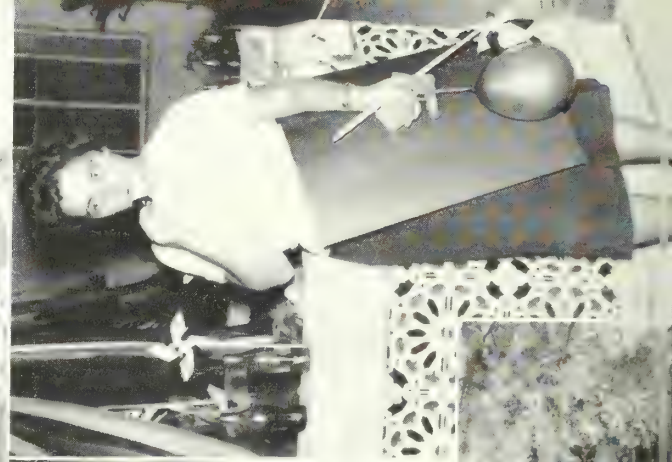

The foregoing parts of this book recorded some of the official sanctioned activities that took place on and near the campus this year of 1953. From now on, any pictures of any persons or things are strictly unofficial, unsanctioned, and uninhibited Tom Foolery. The Tomokan asks you not to draw any misguided conclusions from these pictures, and if you persist in being alarmed at anything you may see, please turn to the catalogue wherein the virtues of our fair institution are set down in glowing prose sufficient enough to explain away your gravest misgivings.

A group of freshmen with a liberal sprinkling of the Welcoming Committee waves goodbye to the West Coast Champion.
